FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1863.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Wednesday afternoon, passed resolutions, calling States. ting of the unconditional Union men of Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Arkunsas, Illinois and of such of parties in Missouri should attend this meeting. other States as may choose to participate, at Hannibal. Mo., on the list of October. The Missouri delegation have extended an invitation to Gen. Lane of Kansas to 19th inst. He has accepted it and will according to dence from Japan, giving a detailed and interthe understanding, reply to the recent speech of Gen. esting account of the recent hostilities commit-Frank P. Blair. The Missouri delegation has appointed by the Dealth of the Daimios, or semi-independent depleting the Army of Virginia to the extension of the Daimios, or semi-independent depleting the Army of Virginia to the extension of the Daimios, or semi-independent depleting the Army of Virginia to the extension of the Daimios, or semi-independent depleting the Army of Virginia to the extension of the Daimios, or semi-independent depleting the Army of Virginia to the extension of the Daimios, or semi-independent depleting the Army of Virginia to the extension of the Daimios, or semi-independent depleting the Army of Virginia to the extension of the Daimios, or semi-independent depleting the Army of Virginia to the extension of the Daimios, or semi-independent depleting the Army of Virginia to the extension of the Daimios, or semi-independent depleting the Army of Virginia to the extension of the Daimios, or semi-independent depleting the Army of Virginia to the extension of the Daimios of t Messes Loan and McClarg, and one from each of the sels. Our correspondent sets the whole matter drawing largely upon North Carolina, Charles the President's response to the address.

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce with great interest. guns of the heaviest caliber was rapidly progressing, and, from present appearances, it was perfectly proper extremely hostile to the foreigners. The Govto say that the harbor was in a perfect state of defense. ernment of the Tycoon-whatever may have numbered between 55,000 and 60,000.

Ines extend around Chattanooga within striking disconform to this proclamation, and three hours lines extend around Chattanooga within striking disconform to this proclamation, and three hours tauce of the enemy. Our forces are well up in front. after paying to the English £110,000 for the see River. On Wednesday night, our cavairy occupied Coopers marder of the Englishman Richardson, issued a HI, Here Gen, Bragg found him, strongly Gap, on Lookout Mountain. The mountain is now hold by tien. Longstreet, who commands the river and railtempts on our lines. They were driven back both times compulsion, and some time later they even apto their introndaments.

The latest information from the Army of the Potentia represents all quiet, and affairs unchanged Hapldan-Hill's entire corps is supposed to be there

GENERAL NEWS.

Syracuse was honored on Wednesday by more State Convention, consisting of David V, Free mended everybody to rote for sigh candidates through the darkness, through and then David V. F. and James J. hoped that Senators and Assemblymen in favor of them would Agricultura, Society was opened yesterday at Hempstend, L. L. and was visited by neward of close po-Among the fruits are several bunches of graps city eatherities to the others of the Russian fleet our dezvoused in our harbor. The warm sympathy may Mested by Admiral Lessofsky, in his remarks, for a Government in the present Rebellion was a marked

Brig.-Gen. Robert Anderson, in response

aouri, Cairo, &c.

position which Gov. Magoffin held two years ago; that the loyalty of the "Conservatives" of Asia. Their present difficulty with the great of Asia. that State is of the same character as foreign powers, whether it may be peaceably vantage begins and ends in brag, spelled indif-Vallandigham, and that a permanent pulse to the mental faculties of the people, and pulse to the mental faculties of the people, and that a permanent pulse to the mental faculties of the people, and that a permanent pulse to the mental faculties of the people, and that a permanent pulse to the mental faculties of the people, and that a permanent pulse to the mental faculties of the people, and that a permanent pulse to the mental faculties of the people, and the case with the control of the people and the case with recovery of Missouri for the nation, and the help to elevate them to a higher level of civilicause of Freedom cannot be expected during zation.

New-Pork Daily Tribune clear exhibition of the affairs of Missouri, to impress the public mind with the necessity of deferring the question of reconstruction to the desperate struggle between the Union army in views and wishes of the true and determined Northern Georgia under Rosecrans and the invalists of the Slave States, who are supposed Rebel forces hastily collected from all quarters to understand the condition and wants of their under Gen. Bragg. We have meantime given States better and more thoroughly than all the the substance if not the terms of every report

Whoever wishes to comprehend the attitude

On Thursday, the enemy made two sto remonstrated with, they professed to net undeplied for foreign aid.

to J. Johnson and D. V. quented passage between the and Kinsin

bers of the delegation have consented to address against the foreigners may be expected. In have the advantage, to Missouri, is the precise counterpart of, and of Japanese to respect international treaties. It his army into the Tennessee, and recover the during the whole period of our national existequal national importance to, the baneful "Ken-must, however, be admitted, that the Japanese greater portion of the State. That project has ence, we have not only had no serious and A testimonial of personal admiration from tucky policy" of 1861. They maintain that Gov- have betrayed a wonderful progress in the art of failed, under circumstances which forbid the Camble of Missouri holds, virtually, the same war, and that they have shown themselves to be hope of its realization this year. Chattanooga between the United States and Russia, there has the army in the field quite another. When the

NEAR CHATTANGOGA.

Nearly two weeks have now elapsed since the The Missouri and Kansas delegates, on self-constituted reconstructionists of the Free whether Union or Rebel, that has been given to the public. We are now prepared to sum up

1. The army of Gen. Bragg, seriously reduced ov desertions and other losses, was inferior to We publish this morning a special correspon- from Middle Tennessee zome two hundred miles the two representatives in Congress from that State viz. | princes. of Japan upon | Dutch and | French ves- | tent of fifteen to twenty thousand men, and by Congressional Districts, making twelve in all to await in the clearest light, and his reports of new ton, and the remains of Gen. J. E. Johnston's faurels won by the American navy, will be read Army of the Mississippi, a very decided preponderance of force was suddenly secured to Gen. on Wednesday, it was stated, with reference to the de- It is generally known that most, if not all, of Bragg. The Rebel army was thus raised within fense of New-York harbor, that the work of mounting the Japanese Daimies have shown themselves a few days from 40,000 to fully 70,000, and perhaps to 75,000 men. That of Gen. Rosecrans king fire of swe guns of the heaviest camer, and that upon $477 per month. If the devotees of Gen. this proposition, but desired to refer it to his elevated to freedom. It is extremely natural upon $477 per month. If the devotees of Gen. he did not see now a hosine vessel could pass up the Narrows. Peter Cooper was greatly impressed with the Daimies. The latter found it convenient to Rescerans, resolved to overwhelm him before definitively accepting it. the state of defense of the farber, and was inclined to give new vitality to the long unrecognized suever that not one vessel out of a thousand could get premacy of the Mikado, the Spiritual Ruler, prised of the altered state of affairs, fell back, we trust that it foreshadows a speedy and conby the fertifications, whether they were iron-clads or through whom a proclamation went forth that concentrating, until his army was massed on clusive agreement. But The Sentinel is careful ufacturing ingenuity, of which she has need—orphans of poor and brave men who have fallen we have Richmond papers to the 29th. Their We have Richmond papers to the 29th. Their We have Richmond papers to the 29th. Their all the foreigners should be expelled. The Country to state that our Colored soldiers are recognized and liberal policy which in defense of their country to state that our Colored soldiers are recognized and liberal policy. We have Riemmond papers to the 29th. They say: Our cil of State of the Tycoon found it necessary to pursues a north-westerly course from the north nized as within the purview of this arrangement. She is struggling to inaugurate—she finds here the struggling to inaugurate and the strugg was hurled upon it, the clutches of the Rebels.

sumas, whose prince, according to the accounts Lytle of Ohio, now dead. We have a Texas matic double-dealing at fault.

Rosecrans" is most unjust. Had Rosecrans's great social experiments have been going ter when committee-men sent, so far as any on her way from the Dnieper to the North, putting on the part of the Union, and Col. Ould, who eral, difficult. But the statement of these diffi-Rebels. It states that Col. Ould proposed that and serfdom-which has by law been in Russia by the contemplation of Gen. McCleflan's future they should be held subject to exchange-" un- sian monarch who seeks to enfranchise the peo- from the War Department," as we are informed less there were actual charges against them; ple committed to his control. and if any were [or should be] held on charges There was, and there still is, then, this pended." which their Covernment considered unjust, let natural bond of feeling between Bussia and the We record this conclusion with the less regret, hostages be retained for such; and further, if United States, that the Governments of both because Gen. McClellan, being still in the 11. Gen. Bragg, thus strengthened, with such time (to be agreed upon), they also should be great tracts of territory are to be rescued from General, is in no pressing need of pecuniary aid. bear upon a vessel in passing up the harbor. Capt. time, been wavering between maintaining able coadjutors as Gens. Longstreet and Hood, released"—that is, exchanged. The Sentinel adds barrenness, and in which those classes of men Agallant soldier, with habits becoming his noble Marshell replied that a vessel would be exposed to the raking fire of 820 gans of the heaviest caliber, and that the foreignets, and the profession, can certainly manage to ashesist that Gen. Meredith seemed willing to agree to heretofore subjected by law to Slavery shall be friendly relations with the foreignets, and that Gen. Meredith seemed willing to agree to heretofore subjected by law to Slavery shall be friendly relations with the foreignets, and that Gen. Meredith seemed willing to agree to heretofore subjected by law to Slavery shall be friendly relations with the foreignets, and that Gen. Meredith seemed willing to agree to heretofore subjected by law to Slavery shall be friendly relations with the foreignets, and that Gen. Meredith seemed willing to agree to heretofore subjected by law to Slavery shall be friendly relations with the foreignets, and that Gen. Meredith seemed willing to agree to heretofore subjected by law to Slavery shall be friendly relations with the foreignets, and that Gen. Meredith seemed willing to agree to heretofore subjected by law to Slavery shall be friendly relations with the foreignets, and that Gen. Meredith seemed willing to agree to heretofore subjected by law to Slavery shall be friendly relations with the foreignets.

ey are least expected. After one or respondents have already been six or eight never forgotten. Wrongs, such as we have ex-trust our Government will prove as liberal and mac, has resulted, unfortunately for the Gener. Here is the entire argument: V. The brunt of the Rebel attack now fell upon the left wing, under Gen. Themas, who had a strong position and resolved to maintain

ently of the extremonious action of the Mayor, pear that Gen. McClellan did himself arrest this "political Hessian" and " of little account," Aldermen and Common Conneil, and of the miln inquiry from the War Department, has stand that the flag which he hadded down from Santar on the occurrence of the army of the Posmac, as the flag which he hadded down from Santar on the occurrence of the army of the Posmac, as the flag which he hadded down from Santar on the occurrence of the army of the Posmac, as the flag which he hadded down from Santar on the occurrence of the army of the Posmac, as the flag which he hadded flag which he hadded flag who had concentrated in a people, which need not be without a rational explanation. A show will at any time collect a time reliabled the proceeding. It is certainly decions misrepresentation. If Mr. Grund was crowd; but any one who has been in the habit true that a considerable sum of money was observed that or arming in noney. They have now held this position more of observed that or arming in noney was observed that a considerable sum of money was observed that a considerable sum of money was observed to the flag that the habit true that a considerable sum of money was observed to the flag that the habit true that a considerable sum of money was observed to the flag that the habit true that a considerable sum of money was observed to the flag that the habit true that a considerable sum of money was observed to the flag that the habit true that a considerable sum of money was observed to the flag that the habit true that a considerable sum of money was observed to the flag that the habit true that a considerable sum of money was observed to the flag that the habit true that a considerable sum of money was observed to the Army of the Posmac, as the flag that the habit that the habit true that a considerable sum of the army of the Posmac, as the flag that the habit that the habit true that a considerable sum of the army of the Army of the Posmac, as the flag that the habit that the h The Book-Traile Sale was concluded on Weineday extends the Strat of Sinonaech in the Board regard at the Strat of Sinonaech in the Board regard at the Strat of Sinonaech in t The Book-Trade Sale was concluded on the Strait of Simonoseki she found in the Rebels content per force with wery great damage was done to the lown and by his been learning which did not add much gory to the process of the short batteries.

On the 24th of July, the French flavehild, and the flavehild have greated the short batteries.

On the 24th of July, the French flavehild heavy expected that his losses are shortly should at a Point. Some second rate borrowers pay 7.

Semiramis returned to Kanagawa. She landed that he outer hastery of patch any their losses in menare "stated to reach."

The range of the frequency is addition to 2,000 wounds the hind the bristling abattle of diplomacy, ready to the short batteries.

On the 24th of July, the French flavehild has admitted that his losses are landed six and honorable feelings that the officers of the short battery of patch any their losses in menare "stated to reach."

Semiramis returned to Kanagawa. She landed that the outer battery of patch any their losses in menare "stated to reach."

The transport is admitted the bristling abattle of diplomacy, ready to the troops. It was under the influence of these just and honorable feelings that the officers of the short batteries.

On the 24th of July. The French flavehild has been requested to do, the subscription of the short batteries and intredenced this being about the form of the short batteries.

On the 24th of July. The French flavehild has been requested to do, the subscription of the short battery of patch any their losses are like the troops. It was under the influence of these just and honorable feelings that the officers of the troops. It was under the influence of these just and honorable feelings that the officers of the short battery to great damage was done to the lown and have a good of the latter. Stering this is the short battery to great damage was done to the lown and have a good of the latter. Stering the short battery to great damage was done to the lown and honorable feelings that the officers of the short battery to great damage was done to the form and honorable feelings that the officers of the sho We print on the second page this morning the Simonoscki and burned a village, but left the from ten to fifteen thousand." Another Rebel of the globe, upon the extension of popular civwe print on the second page this morning the simonoseki and burner a value, but left the housand. The Atlanta dization, has preserved those relations of friending the value of Simonoseki unharmed, dispatch says twelve thousand. The Atlanta dization, has preserved those relations of friending the preserved those relations of friending the value of the New-York Court town and the forts of Simonoseki unharmed, dispatch says twelve thousand. The Atlanta opinion of Judge Wright of the French success was certainly much less dispatch aforegoid says Gen. Breckinridge's ship, which, when they become ancient, may any act, or provoke any discussion, which, with of Appeals on the legal-tender question. We shall also print the opinion of Judge Balcom as that that of the Americans, and the Japacese that they become an election as the streets of Kanagawa were generally talking of those "terrible Americans."

On the third page this morning we give a full account of the reception by the city authorities of the Prince of Nagato, in the proceeded from the Americans, and the Japacese that they did vision to the their graph of the successary down the first that they did vision to the proceeded from the proceeded from the proceeded from the Prince of Nagato and the successary division to the their graph of the successary division to the their graph of the successary division to the their graph of the successary division to the of the Russian officers. Also, letters from Missouth-western part of the largest of the Japan- of the largest of the largest of the ly small. We venture to suggest, that the ject of some not ill-natured comment, and adyould of course have let him severely alone, not disdained, while they contemplated the walk through the camp with their contributionout fallen upon Memphis, Corinth, or some other political emancipation of great masses of their boxes, and at the entrance of every tent cail uviting point, instead. So long as we fight on populations, to study here the operation of a out: "Stand and deliver!" This is what would the outer circumference of a circle whereof Constitution which, in its theory at least, es- be permitted in no army in the world, when Dixie is the center, we must be exposed to these tablished the equality of all persons before the the purpose of the ten-penny gleaning was concentrations of Rebel force on the spot in our law. We would not be understood to say that the glorification of a General just relieved, extended lines which seems most inviting. No in Russia any sentiment of this kind has taken by his superiors, from his command. possible disposition of our forces can preclude the shape of fixed and definite formula. It is There is a taint of political suspicion this. Our only safety lies in overwhelming unquestionably true that in that country many about the affair from the beginning. Its direct numbers and a concerted and energetic advance. relies of barbarism yet remain. A people not and inevitable tendency must have been to make easily governed cannot be easily reformed, the army a party to a controversy with which it Moreover, the population of Russia, composed of had nothing to do. The Committee engaged in The Richmond Sentinel of the 24th has a re- widely different tribes, swayed by widely different this generous business have issued a circular, in port of a conference between Gen. Meredith, endows, must present antagonisms which make which they state they abandoned it because it Commissioner for the exchange of prisoners assimilation, under any policy, despotic or lib- was "considered as contrary to army regulaefficiates in the same capacity on the part of the culties, with that other of the system of nobility how any man in his senses, and unintoxicated "all officers and men on both sides should be abelished-must indicate to every reader the and possible glory, could ever have considered it released"-which we understand to mean that obstructions which are in the path of any Rus- as anything else. No wonder "the pressure such charges were not tried within a reasonable have at least a future before them in which receipt of his pay and emoluments as a Majorwithin the purview of the arrangement, and we mense territory to the beneficent and consolidathope to hear soon from Washington that this is ing control of a moderate and watchful central of Francis J. Grand, holds the following landistinctly understood. With a balance of at Government. Those who think carefully upon guage: least Twenty-five Thousand prisoners on the these relative points, will not fail to find in tends to think that the right side of the ledger, it ought not to be diffi- them good reason, on the part of Russia, if not cult not merely to protect but to reclaim all for an American alliance, at least for an

of States, an Emperor, great because he is beut sion that Mr. Grund thinks the North large a prependerance of prist upon philanthropic projects, is still our friend, would fall to pieces and the South bold These eng. Obligations like these, abstract as they are, are together; he held that the success of the

THE MICHELLAN DONATION ABAN-

ed by subscription in the Army of the Potoice. The dimes subscribed by the sol- decrees with, rather than congratulate him. But his and vulgar epithets that garnish their loss will be our gain. He will lose a little Ismentations cannot conecal the fact that the precious movement of mingled speculation and and "makes a public confession of his insigsycophancy, we shall be able for once at least, inficance," according to The World: yet that

The soldiers of the Army of the Pot ion the object of the subscription "was prejudent 20 to 23 steamers. At the Northern ports, a A Mass Meeting in honor of the Missouri delgating whose prince, according to the about 20 to 23 steamers. At the about 20 to 23 steamers, about 20 to 23 steamers, about 20 to 23 steamers, and the object of the subscription "was prejus about 20 to 23 steamers. At the dicital to good order and military discipline."

Those whose historic tastes lead them from dicital to good order and military discipline."

Those whose historic tastes lead them trom dicital to good order and military discipline. Those whose historic tastes lead them trom dicital to good order and military discipline. Those whose historic tastes lead them trom dicital to good order and military discipline. Those whose historic tastes lead them trom dicital to good order and military discipline. Those whose historic tastes lead them trom dicital to good order and military discipline. Those whose historic tastes lead them trom dicital to good order and military discipline. Those whose historic tastes lead them trom dicital to good order and military discipline. Those whose historic tastes lead them trom dicital to good order and military discipline. Those whose historic tastes lead them trom dicital to good order and military discipline. Those whose historic tastes lead them trom dicital to good order and military discipline. Those whose historic tastes lead them trom dicital to good order and military discipline. Those whose primary about 20 to 23 steamers. At the dicital to good order and military discipline. Washington, will be held this evening at the Cooper Institute, under the auspices of the German National Club. Several prominent men. man National Club. Several prominent mement that a general combination of the Daimos were killed. In prisoners, the Rebels doubtless with Russia have been eminently friendly. It quarters, and refused to permit the soldiers a fit condition to put to sea. An efficial list, in is not necessary to assign the distance of that under his command to contribute, on the deed, dated 1853, shows the available strength the meeting, and will, without doubt, afford a this case all the foreign powers will of course VIII. The Rebel advance and attack had a Empire from our own shores, as the cause of this ground that it was the inevitable tendency of the Black Sea fleet at that time, to have been conclear insight into the state of things existing in unite in asserting the rights which they have distinct, admitted purpose—to overwhelm Rose-Missouri and Kansas. The originators of the obtained in virtue of the late treaties, and their crans before he could be adequately re-enforced, proportions of Russia, that they trench upon our that the subscription was in itself a reflection receting assert that the policy pursued in regard combined forces will, without doubt, teach the retake Chattanooga, destroy his materiel, drive own boundaries, and yet it is a curious fact, that upon the Administration for retiring from active their continuance in power. They desire, by a THE LATE BATTLES IN GEORGIA army been swelled to 100,000 men, the Rebels on, and that her liberal monarchs have pears, by nobody, and responsible to nobody, " was so strong against it that it was sus-

THE WAY OF THE WORLD.

And in the quotation about Jeff. Davis being & statesman, The World wickedly falsifies the argament by omitting the last portion. Mr. provoked by the proposition to Grand was not reasoning that the success of the t to Gen. McClellan a sum of money. Rebellion is impossible, but that to rebel to some Slavery was certain to destroy that institution.

but the nation will escape an ugly pre- blow is a severe one to their party. All at once they have found out that Mr. Grund is a to extend to his conduct our hearty approval. | journal writhes through a column of aspersion onne, as and falsehood to parry the effect of his speech,

But of these, probably the majority would, by experienced Naval Surveyor, have been condensed as nearly worthless for war purposes. Russian slips